The troubles of Capt. John A. Fysh re multiplying. Capt. Fysh had Mrs Inez Hyland arrested on a charge of misappropriating his wife's $10,000 necklace. Then Mrs. Fysh had him arrested for the theft of the necklace and he is now out on $10,000 bail. Frank Sugget. Mrs. Fysh's brother, announced this rning that his sister had privately begun divorce proceedings against her poses to sue him at once for the re-covery of a $1,000 bond belonging to him, of which the captain got posse cion some time ago.

Because Lawyer Unger pronounced the arrest of Capt. Fysh "Oriental justice." Magistrate Flammer asked Dis-trict-Attorney Jerome to send a represtative to Jefferson Market Court today during the hearings of the cases against Mrs. Hyland and Capt. Fysh. Assistant District-Attorney Kresel was in court when the cases came up, but left when an adjournment was taken until late this afternoon.

Mr. Sugget was very bitter against Capt. Fysh to-day. He said that the Captain had been playing fast and loose with his sister for years, but had always managed to make his peace with her in the end. This time, he said, there would be no peace, as his sister had begun di-vorce proceedings and would push them to the end. Capt. Fysh refused to dis-cuss this latest-phase of the situation, but looked very disconsolate.

Ringler and his wife had retired for the night. It was very windy in the Bronx, and the breeze rattled the shutters so that Mrs. Ringler became nervous and thought burglars were in the house.

She said she was Mrs. Rose Lezy, of the house.

"Fred." she called to her husband, No. 331 Broadway. No one at that who was fast asleep; "wake up; there are burglars in the house."

Hurrying down the street, she ran into the Morrisania police station, where she tried to tell what happened at her home, bpt she was so excited that she did not make herself intelligible. The police at the station thought that Ringler had attempted suicide. Of this they were soon set right, for two policemen went up to the Ringler house.

Ringler has been twenty-eight years in the department and has reached retiring age. For twelve years he was stationed at Lexington avenue and Twenty-third street, where he regulated traffic. He was known as "Stonewall," and in all that time he never had an accident. Later he was sent to the Grand Certral Depot.
